Start in no time...

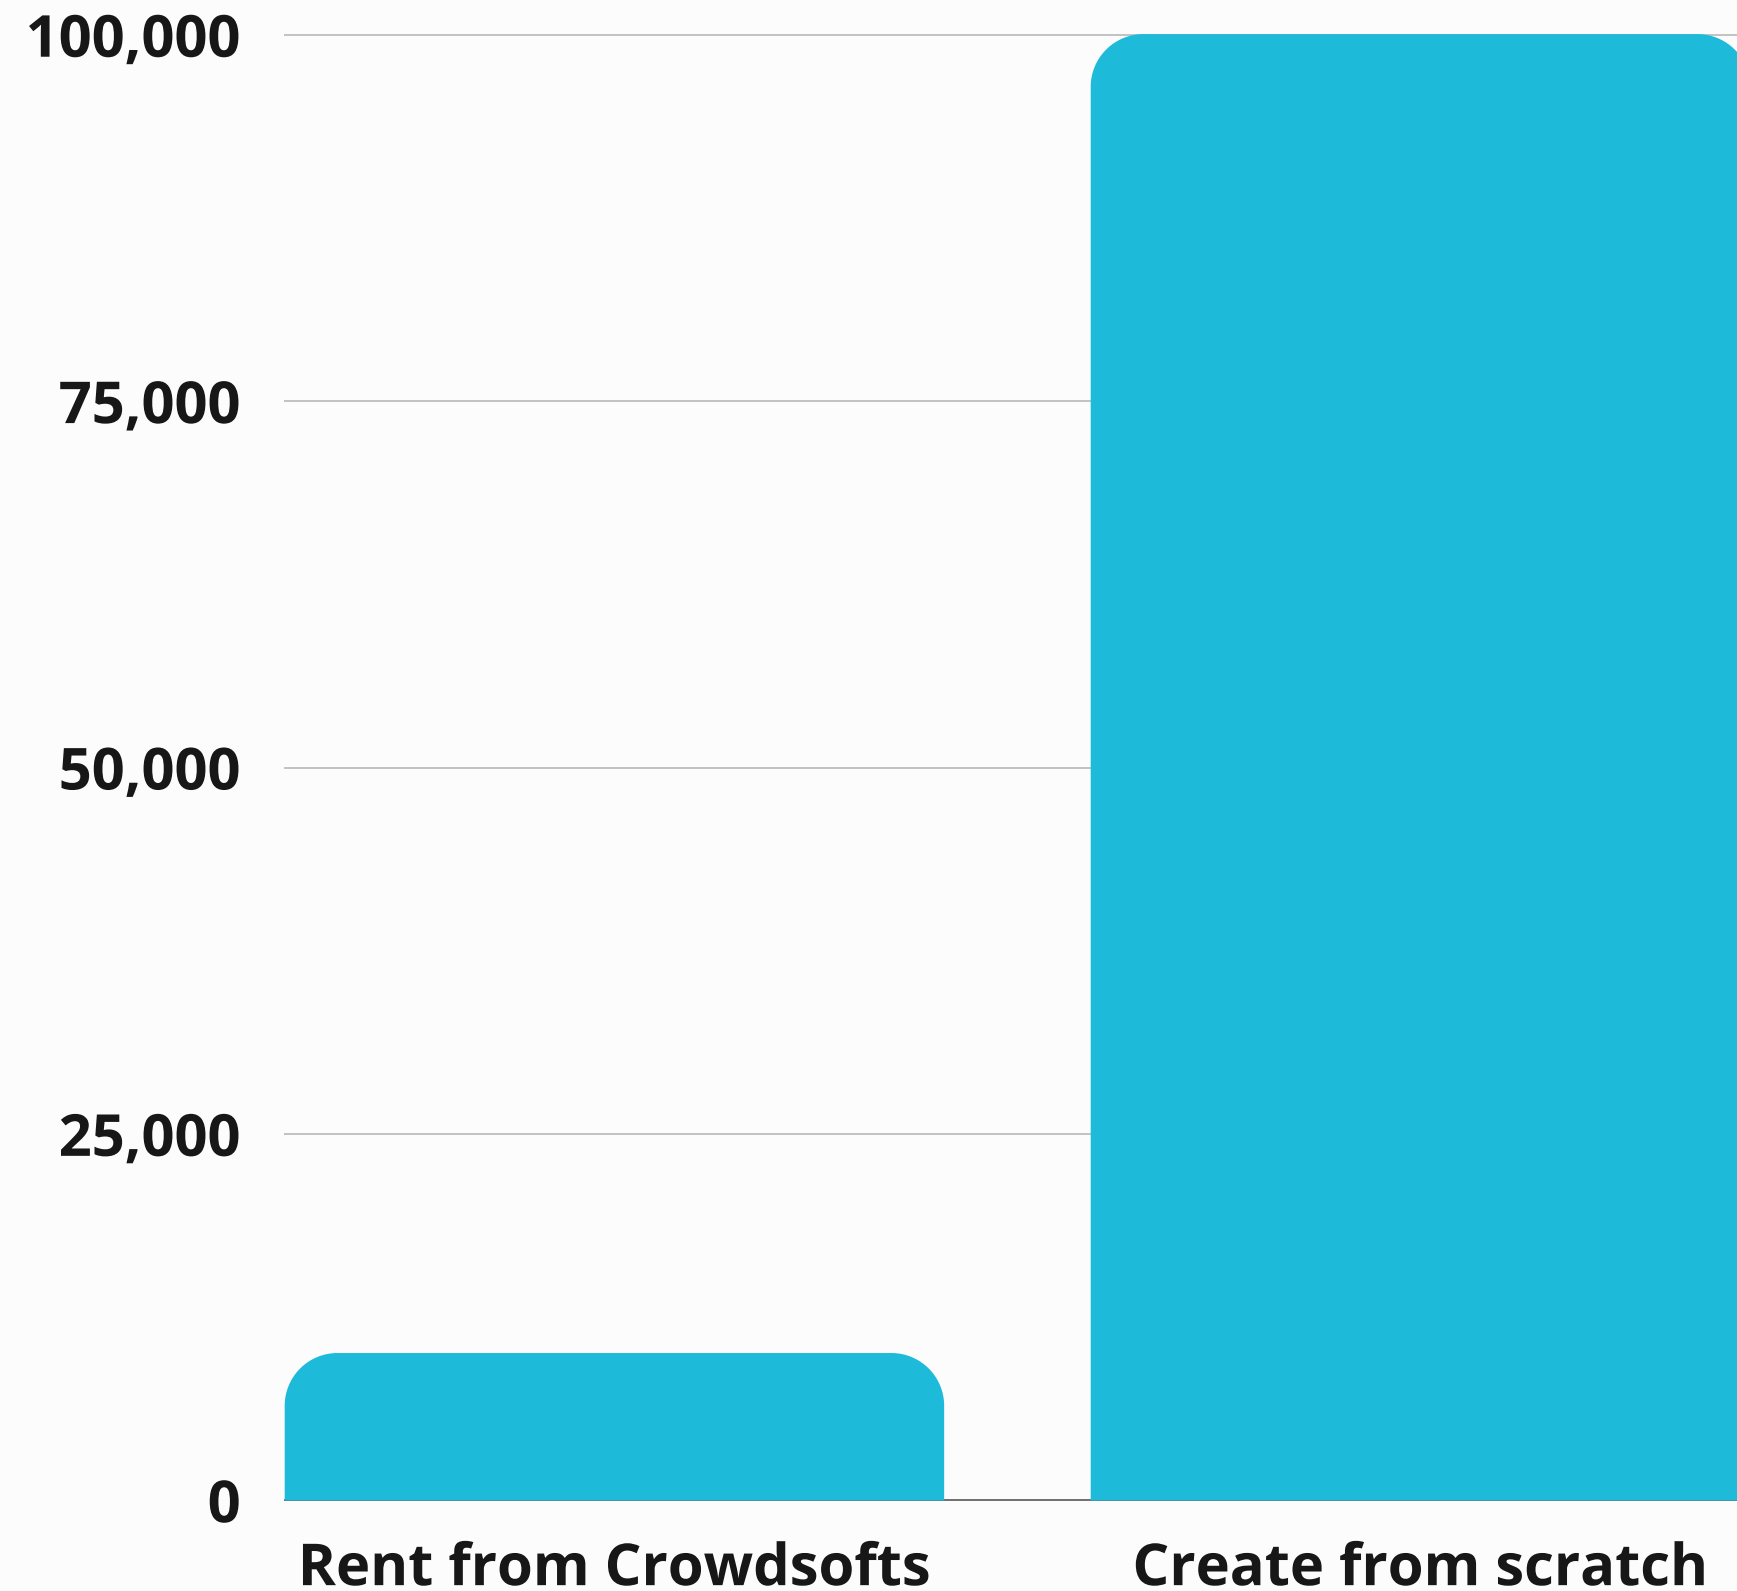

To outsource a crowdfunding software such as Crowdsifts means focusing solely on sales and marketing. It's a cutting-edge technology, made to be user-friendly, cost effective, time-saving and to help you raise funds easily.

Website launch time

You will be able to start your own crowdfunding website with leased technology in less than 2 months from the sealing a proposal.

Creating a website from scratch will take you 6 months or more, and once you start, you will have less than 20% of all the functionality that is already in the rented technology.

Website launch price*

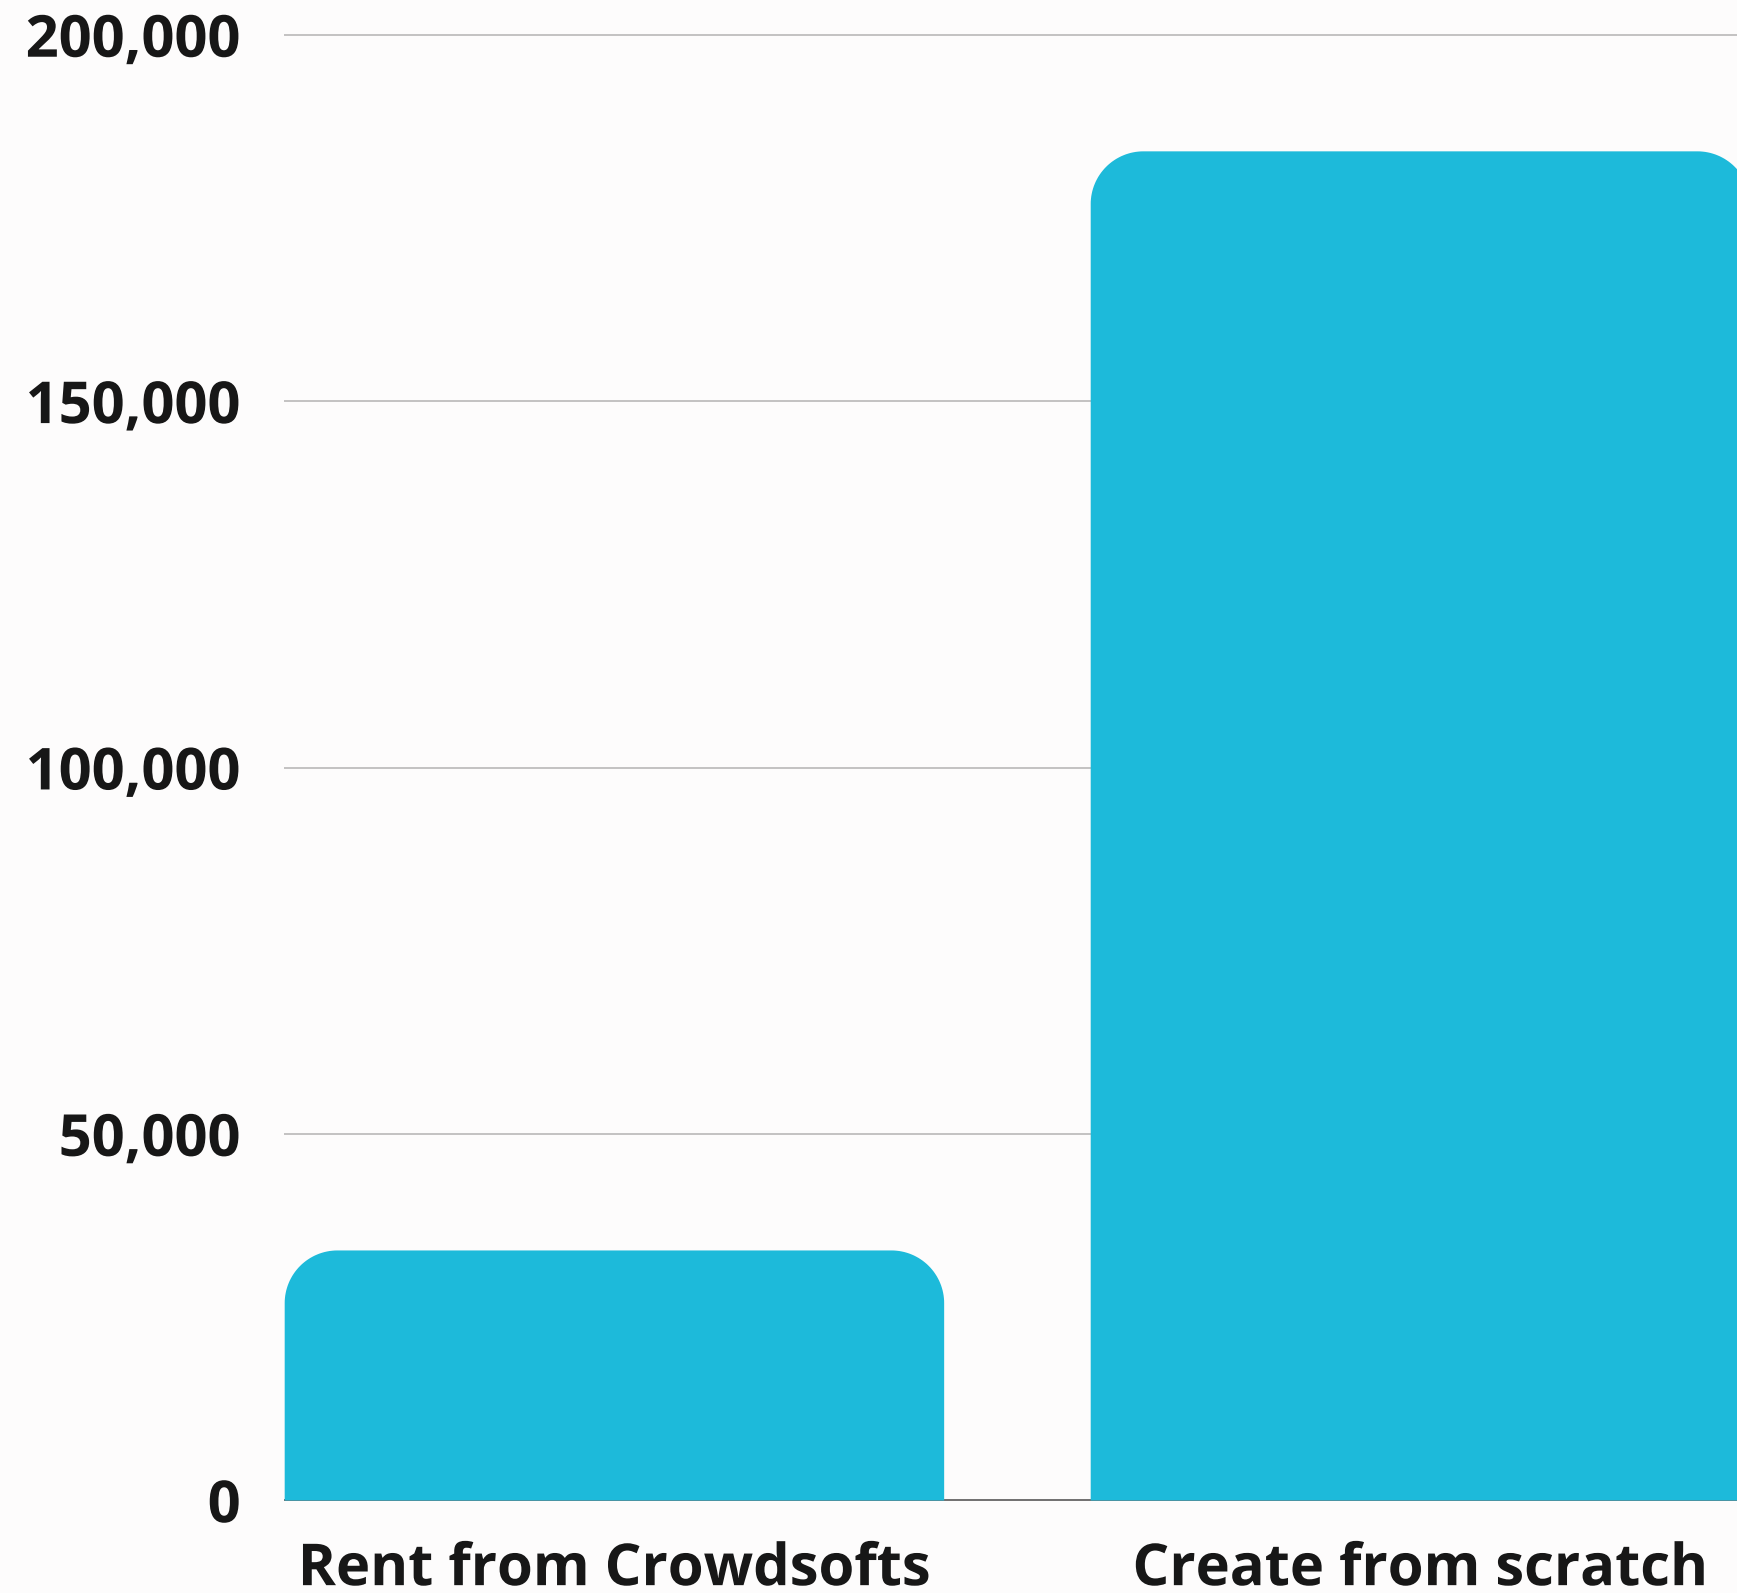

On average, companies spend at least 100 000 EUR to built a market-ready crowdfunding platform (with basic functionalities and partial automation).

While starting with white-label crowdfunding software Crowdsofts.com will cost you about 10 times less 10 000 EUR (fully automated & with upgraded functionallities).

Monthly support costs*

Monthly programming and support costs are 30% lower with outsourced software.

Yearly costs (1st year)*

Yearly programming and support costs are 5x lower with outsourced software for the 1st year.

Success stories

Almost any business can benefit from crowdfunding process, it's just the question of how to adapt the tools!

These companies trust us and our platform to perform financial crowdfunding transactions.
